Summer, 2011

Dear friends of Baxter and the JMA Clinic:

We cannot thank you enough for your interest in and support of the work at Baxter Institute and the JMA Clinic. As you know, the cost of everything continues to rise, and the experience in Latin America is no different—recently, it has been even more pronounced! Summer costs are especially high because we are required by the Honduran government to pay an extra month's salary, and we are in the midst of the school year beginning to think about graduation and end of year activities.

We are grateful for the way God blesses us through friends, donors, supporting congregations, and visiting groups. We appreciate your partnership and hope that you will consider how you can help, perhaps by beginning a regular gift, through increasing your regular support, or through a one-time gift.

We are still working to complete funding for a matching grant in the amount of $40,000. We again ask that you consider this special need and check below to apply your gift to the matching grant.

Here is a partial listing of some current needs and costs:

$700/month Support for a married couple at Baxter

$500/month Support for a single student at Baxter

[Note: costs are slightly higher for Cuban students who must return to Cuba each year]

$2000/day Approximate cost to operate Baxter

$750/day Approximate cost to operate the JMA Clinic

$30/month Cost to support a child and family in the nutrition program at the JMA Clinic
