

W.O.W: Word Of the Week

Hupernikómen (Super-Conquerors)

April 7, 2021

I return to Romans. Romans 8:31-37. Five questions. Rhetorical questions, answers are obvious. What shall we say?

If God is for us, who can be against us?

Will he not graciously give us all things?

Who can bring a charge against those God has chosen?

Who will condemn?

Who will separate us from God's love?

Verses must be understood in context.

→ In all that has been said, mentioned....in every possible situation, opposition, need, accusation, judgment, isolation. In every circumstance, always.

→ We more than win, completely victorious, we super-conquer, make out like super-heroes (not because we are, but because He is!). We prevail, overcome to the nth degree.

→ Through the one loving us, because of Jesus.

Chorus of song by Steven Curtis Chapman: More Than Conquerors

We are more than conquerors

We are more than conquerors

God, if You are for us, who can be against us

We are more than conquerors

We are more than conquerors

God, if You are for us, who can be against us

What can separate us from Your love
